

Dr Nazeer Ahmed Ismail Chopdat

Gastroenterologist

Dr Chopdat is a distinguished gastroenterologist practising at Ahmed Kathrada Private Hospital in Lenasia and Baragwanath Hospital in Johannesburg, Gauteng. He brings a comprehensive educational and professional background to his clinical practice.

Dr Chopdat earned his Bachelor of Medicine and Bachelor of Surgery (MBBCh) from the University of the Witwatersrand. His commitment to advancing his expertise led him to complete a fellowship with the Fellowship College of Physicians of South Africa.

He further solidified his specialisation in gastroenterology by obtaining a Certificate in Gastroenterology from the College of Physicians of South Africa and MRCP Gastroenterology qualification from the Royal College of Physicians in the United Kingdom. In his practice, Dr Chopdat embraces a broad and inclusive approach to patient care.

His extensive skill set encompasses:

- Healthcare management.
- Clinical research.
- Medical education.
- Emergency medicine.
- Critical care.
- Internal medicine.

Dr Chopdat's diverse qualifications and comprehensive training enable him to provide valuable insights into gastroenterology while maintaining a versatile approach to patient care. His extensive experience across multiple healthcare settings, combined with his dedication to both clinical practice and medical education, positions him as a well-rounded practitioner in the field of gastroenterology.